

Keith Hoskins

Senior Vice President
Greater Pensacola
Navy Federal Credit Union

Keith Hoskins is Senior Vice President of Greater Pensacola for Navy Federal Credit Union. He is responsible for leading the day-to-day operations of over 8,300 team members located on the Brian L. McDonnell campus in Pensacola, Florida.

Keith joined the Navy Federal team in April of 2019. Prior to his current leadership role, he was the Western District General Manager/Military Affairs Manager for Gulf Power Company, overseeing and directing all operations for Escambia and Santa Rosa counties.

Keith served 27 distinguished years in the United States Navy, retiring at the rank of Captain. Two of Keith's many assignments during his naval career included serving as a F-18 pilot on the Blue Angels flight demonstration team and as Commanding Officer for Naval Air Station Pensacola, where he provided leadership and oversight for over 25,000 military and civilian personnel. Under Keith's leadership in 2015, President Barack Obama awarded NAS Pensacola the Commander in Chief's Installation Excellence Award.

Keith is a native of Parkville, MO. He is a graduate from Missouri Western State University with a Bachelor of Science in Electrical Engineering Technology, where he attended on both an academic and football scholarship. Keith received his master's degree from the Industrial College of the Armed Forces.

Keith is a dedicated community leader. In August 2019, Governor Ron DeSantis appointed Keith to the board of the Florida Defense Support Task Force. He also serves on the Achieve Escambia Leadership Council, Gulf Coast Kid's House Executive Board, and the Naval Aviation Museum Foundation Board of Trustees.

Keith and his wife, Lori, are proud parents of three children. His hobbies include golfing, traveling, and watching Kansas City Chiefs football games.
